Street Art Scape

Call for Artists

An art program sponsored by the Havre de Grace Arts Collective and the City of Havre de Grace, designed to beautify & enhance the Arts & Entertainment (A&E) District of Havre de Grace, MD through painted art on streets, curbs and manhole covers.

The A&E Committee, along with the Havre de Grace Public Art Committee, will provide artists with locations for project. Designs should be engaging, thoughtful and imaginative. NO logos, no sports teams, no advertisements, no nudity, no foul language will be permitted. (A map of the A&E District is attached.)

Selected Artists will be compensated with a stipend dependent on the magnitude/complexity of the approved project. Each artist will receive a pre-determined amount at the beginning of the process for supplies and receive the remaining award at the completion of the project.

Material guidelines: Sealers, UV coating, etc. is required to extend the life of the art.
